

NEW CHILDREN'S BOOKS

For Middle School Readers

Animal Reads

Summer 2018!

My Pet Human Takes Center Stage

by Yasmine Surovec

Children's Fiction J Surovec

When his human, Freckles, joins the pet club and signs up for a talent show at her new school, Oliver the loyal cat has no choice but to help out but is dismayed when Freckles takes in a foster kitten who upstages him.

Pup Called Trouble

by Bobbie Pyron

Children's Fiction J Pyron

When a coyote pup named Trouble stows away in the back of a truck, he ends up in the heart of New York City, and must choose between the risks of being caught and the dangers of a long journey home.

Whiskerella

Book 5: Hamster Princess

by Ursula Vernon

Children's Fiction J Vernon

When a fairy godmouse forces Whiskerella to wear glass slippers and attend balls night after night in search of a happily ever after, it's up to Princess Harriet Hamsterbone to break the spell and save the day.

The Titanic

Book 1: Survival Tails

by Katrina Charman

Children's Fiction J Charman

A stowaway dog and the captain's cat forge an unlikely friendship as they race to protect three kittens, help their humans, and survive the sinking of the Titanic.

Strongheart: Wonder Dog of the Silver Screen

by Candace Fleming and Eric Rohmann

Children's Fiction J Fleming

A German shepherd is transformed from Etzel, a police dog in Berlin, to Strongheart, a silent movie star that will need his best acting skills to prove himself innocent of attacking a girl. Based on a true story.

Dolphins: Voices in the Ocean

by Susan Casey

Children's Non-fiction J 559.53 Cas

Presents information about the connection between dolphins and humans, including shared characteristics such as capacity for emotion, playfulness, sociability, and intelligence.

Checked

by Cynthia Kadohata

Children's Fiction J Kadohata

To help his dog through cancer treatment, Conor gives up hockey and finds himself considering who he is without the sport that has defined him, and connecting more with his family and best friend.

A Seal Named Patches

by Roxanne Beltran

Children's Non-fiction J 599.79 Bel

Scientists Roxanne Beltran and Patrick Robinson set off on a polar adventure, traveling to Antarctica to study the lives of Weddell seals. Through photos and real-life stories, young readers will learn about how scientists do fieldwork, the challenges of researching animals in harsh climates, what it's like to fly in a helicopter over Antarctica.